

OPERATION BANDANAS FOR BRAGG

Psalm 91 bandana

“He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Ps. 91:1

A beautiful chapter from God’s word, Psalm 91, written in first person to speak personally to a soldier, is being sent out across the sea. Your support for our deployed and deploying soldiers will send forth a creative and useful method of spreading God’s word to a member of our military. The vision for this effort is to see that every soldier from Ft. Bragg who is serving in Iraq and Afghanistan receive one of these camo bandanas with Psalm 91 printed on it. To accomplish this would require enough donations to be able to order thousands of bandanas to have “in stock” so that when a deployment is scheduled, the bandanas will be ready to be distributed to chaplains.

Let me share with you some things I believe could come out of this effort:

- I believe in the power of the Word of God, “piercing to the very bone and marrow,” and that it “shall not return void,” therefore,
- I believe that any soldier reading this Psalm will be inspired, encouraged, and comforted.
- I believe that a soldier who has never read a word of scripture before could be made new and changed forever.
- I believe, because God’s word is a vital piece of the armor of God, it can bring protection and deliverance.
- I believe that this is an inspired, creative, and tangible way to let our military know they are loved, supported, remembered, and appreciated.
- I believe that I serve a BIG God, and that as big as this project is, it is not too big to be accomplished with His favor and blessing on it.

This will be an ongoing project throughout 2007 as we have thousands of our military deploying, beginning in early January. Although this is a local effort because of our proximity to Ft. Bragg, the soldiers here represent families all across America. What an exciting opportunity God has put before us for spreading His word!
