Please give any information concerning your child, which will be helpful in his or her experience in group settings (such as play and eating habits, special likes and dislikes, special needs)

I understand that there will be no reduction in tuition fees due to absences.

In the event you withdraw your child from our program, a two-week notice must be given.

Note to parents: Registration fees include the purchase of classroom crafts, snacks and toys. These items will only be used for MMO children.

Please bring your child's shot record for us to copy for our file.

May we have permission to photograph your child for our church ads? Yes No
